1 Article and 1 Blog WRITTEN FOR YOU!

We all know that current, relevant information is what people are looking for and the greatest way to do business with them is to get information out there that meets that standard. Blogs and articles are a great strategy to provide that content.

You may have heard the term “blogging for dollars.” If you have, you may have wondered why you didn’t make any money when YOU blogged? While in some cases Blogs are constructed to make money from ads embedded in the Blog itself, in the vast majority of cases, the Blog’s purpose is to speak to your readers in a manner that will bring people back to your website where you will be able to begin a relationship with them. Our trained writers will not only write these blogs and articles according to what is current and relevant in your particular industry but they will also seed them with your specific keywords, which we all know is of the most important steps! And this is all done completely for you!

Look, we know that you can write your own content, and we encourage you to do it too! But, we all know that when it comes down to it, if you have to choose between sitting down to crank out a new article or blog, or meeting with a new prospect or client, you’re going to meet with the prospect or client. As you should! But, you’re really selling yourself in the long run as a good article or blog sent out into the online world to bring back business, in the end will bring you lots of new clients and prospects. This is the true power of PR leverage letting it act as your credible sales force. Adopting our system you will no longer do you have to agonize over it, let us systematically do it for you, on the schedule that will bring you the most traffic, while you do what you do best and bring in dollars today!

Online Celebrity PR (2 per month)

The only thing better than having content produced for you on a schedule, is repurposing the content to drive even more traffic. We do this by writing and syndicating a press release about each article and blog we produce for you. You don’t have to worry about it; we just handle it all for you and send another 4 press releases out into the online marketplace. When this happens, the press release repeats the key information you were trying to get out to prospects and will once again embed your proper key words to attract their attention. This is 4 more times we will be adding content to you search pages which moves you into higher page ranks where your message can attract more attention to drive more traffic and credibility right to you!

Social Media Marketing with Lindsay’s Proprietary Circular Marketing™ and Custom Link Builder

People buy People. Social Media Management helps develop a relationship with your current customers, potential customers and you/ your brand. We use the latest Social Media strategies as a tool to develop quality relationships, collecting valuable information and having your fans take charge. Keeping your social outlets current, up-to-date, creative and fun can be an exhausting responsibility that should not be handled causally. With our Custom Link Builder we’re going to maximize the number of quality backlinks your website gets to increase your Google ranking and drive even more traffic to your website. We also monitor all “buzz” surrounding your brand and help leverage your brand identity to generate interest and action among your current and potential clients.

Social Media Influence Report

Each month you will receive a detail social media report that shows where your blog, articles and press releases have been posted and picked up as well as activity on your Facebook and Twitter accounts. To keep you on top of your online content and your progress in the search engines, this report will also show the latest relevant Google index results based on your syndicated blogs, articles and press releases.
